EXPERIENCE

iTalanta

Angular Developer

Hybrid

February, 2023 – May 2023

I learned Angular from scratch and contributed highly to their projects that are now ready for production and I was able to solve a number of issues that were merged into the final repository of the company.

Elewa Group — It was a landing page of the company and it is used to help interns and junior developers get a better understanding of Angular. It has interactive features that will engage the user and the font size, styles and image selection were accurate and perfect.

- Built with: Angular
Firebase
SCSS

Elewa — The Elewa LMS is a world first conversational learning manager. The Elewa LMS allows you to build, host and manage courses that run over a conversational platform such as WhatsApp, Telegram, Messenger or our very own web platform.
